Sexual Assault

Texas A&M University
College Station, Texas

A resident living in an on-campus residence hall reported to the Texas A&M University Police Department that she was sexually assaulted. This case was investigated by the University Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division. The victim was able to identify the suspect as an acquaintance. The victim chose to participate in the "pseudonym" program. In order to protect the victim, no further information will be released. The subsequent investigation led to the issuance of an arrest warrant. A Texas A&M student was arrested and charged with sexual assault.
