

June 15, 2022

Wednesday

08:00 - 17:00

Taser Instructor Class -- Ag Buidling RELLIS

This class is to certify new taser instructors. The class will involve several exercises involving the use of CEW . The class lecture and scenarios will test and train Instructors in the proper use and applications to train new Officers and update exiting officers that carry tasers.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Det. Todd Van Dresar
Maximum class size:5

Location: TEEX Ag Bldg. at the RELLIS Campus

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

June 27, 2022

Monday

08:00 - 17:00

Procedural Justice Class -- room 126

Course Overview: The procedural justice perspective argues that the legitimacy of the police is linked to public judgments about the fairness of the processes through which the police make decisions and exercise authority. If the public judges that the police exercise their authority using fair procedures, their model suggests that the public will view the police as legitimate and will cooperate with policing efforts. alienation, defiance, and noncooperation.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Mr. Scott Meadors

Maximum class size: 35

Location: Training Room 126 C

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned and non-commissioned employees.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

June 28, 2022

Tuesday

08:00 - 17:00

Procedural Justice Class -- 126 C

Course Overview: The procedural justice perspective argues that the legitimacy of the police is linked to public judgments about the fairness of the processes through which the police make decisions and exercise authority. If the public judges that the police exercise their authority using fair procedures, their model suggests that the public will view the police as legitimate and will cooperate with policing efforts. alienation, defiance, and noncooperation.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Mr. Scott Meadors

Maximum class size: 35

Location: Training Room 126 C

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned and non-commissioned employees.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

June 29, 2022

Wednesday

08:00 - 17:00

Procedural Justice CClass -- 126 C

Course Overview: The procedural justice perspective argues that the legitimacy of the police is linked to public judgments about the fairness of the processes through which the police make decisions and exercise authority. If the public judges that the police exercise their authority using fair procedures, their model suggests that the public will view the police as legitimate and will cooperate with policing efforts. alienation, defiance, and noncooperation.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Mr. Scott Meadors

Maximum class size: 35

Location: Training Room 126 C

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned and non-commissioned employees.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

June 30, 2022

Thursday

08:00 - 17:00

Procedural Justice Class -- 126 C

Course Overview: The procedural justice perspective argues that the legitimacy of the police is linked to public judgments about the fairness of the processes through which the police make decisions and exercise authority. If the public judges that the police exercise their authority using fair procedures, their model suggests that the public will view the police as legitimate and will cooperate with policing efforts. alienation, defiance, and noncooperation.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Mr. Scott Meadors

Maximum class size: 35

Location: Training Room 126 C

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned and non-commissioned employees.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

July 18, 2022

Monday

08:00 - 17:00

Firearms Training -- TEEX Firing & Rifle Ranges at the RELLIS Campus

Class will involve several exercises to familiarize and make Officers more proficient with the use of their sidearm, police shotgun, and patrol rifle.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Sgt. Goldwater, Officer Jackson, Det. Rogers, Lt. Hartman, and Sgt. Wallingford

Attendance Limited to TAMU PD commissioned Officers.

Class size 15

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

Class Location: TEEX Firing & Rifle Ranges at the RELLIS Campus

July 19, 2022

Tuesday

08:00 - 17:00

Defensive Tactics and ASP Training -- TEEX Wiatt Gym at the RELLIS Campus

Officers will be given instruction on the use of Defense Tactics in order to respond and protect themselves, and/or others, to the most common forms of resistance encountered while performing their duties. The ASP portion of this course it to instruct the students on the techniques for use of the expandable baton

July 19, 2022 Continued

Tuesday

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Lt. Rios, Officer Cobos, Officer Crenshaw, Officer Hickman

Class Location: Wiatt Building at the RELLIS Campus

Maximum class size: 15

Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

July 20, 2022

Wednesday

08:00 - 17:00

EVO/Pursuit Driving Training -- TEEX Driving Track at the RELLIS Campus

The Emergency Vehicle Operators Course Update class is designed to refresh emergency vehicle operators in properly handling a vehicle during emergency driving situations. Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to operate motor vehicle under emergency conditions while minimizing exposure to injury, loss of property and liability. The morning portion of the training will consist of classroom discussion over UPD Policy Chapter 58, Vehicular Pursuits before any practical exercise is conducted.

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Officer Jackson, Sgt. Goldwater, Det. Rogers, Det. Wester.

Maximum Class size: 15

Class location: TEEX Driving Track at the RELLIS Campus.

Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop

July 21, 2022

Thursday

08:00 - 17:00

Active Threats - Use of Force Training -- TEEX Ag Bldg. at the RELLIS Campus

This class will involve several exercises involving the use of Simunitions weapons. The scenarios will test and train officers in the proper level and use of force in several real life scenarios. Scenarios will range from no use of force to deadly force situations.

July 21, 2022 Continued

Thursday

Class will be for 8 hours.

Instructors: Lt. Rios, Sgt. Goldwater, Ofc. Clemens, Ofc. Stultz, Ofc. Cobos, and Ofc. Jackson

Maximum class size: 15

Location: TEEX Ag Bldg. at the RELLIS Campus

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

July 22, 2022

Friday

08:00 - 12:00

Evidence Handling -- Training Rm 126 C

The goal of this course is to update employees of the Texas A&M University Police Department on Evidence Handling. Changes have been made in regards to policy and procedures as well as software changes that impact the area of property and evidence. During this course the instructor and students will discuss what evidence is, different classifications of property, chain of custody, handling evidence, and packaging evidence.

Class will be for 4 hours.

Instructors: Jamie Murphy

Maximum class size: 15

Location: Training Room 126 C

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned officers.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

13:00 - 17:00

CSA Training -- Training Rm 126 C

The goal of this course is to assist commissioned and non-commissioned employees of UPD to better understand Clery compliance and how they can participate in a manner to help facilitate compliance.

Class will be for 4 hours.

Instructors: Sgt. Paxton

Maximum class size: 15

Location: Training Room 126 C

Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned and non-commissioned employees.

The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.