

March 6, 2023

Monday

08:00 - 17:00

Firearms Training In-service -- RELLIS

Class will involve several exercises to familiarize and make Officers more proficient with the use of their sidearm, police shotgun, and patrol rifle. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Det. Wester, Officer Jackson, Det. Rogers, Lt. Hartman, and Sgt. Jackson Attendance Limited to TAMU PD commissioned Officers. Class size 15 The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop. Class Location: TEEX Firing & Rifle Ranges at the RELLIS Campus

March 7, 2023

Tuesday

08:00 - 17:00

Defensive Tactics and ASP Training -- RELLIS

Officers will be given instruction on the use of Defense Tactics in order to respond and protect themselves, and/or others, to the most common forms of resistance encountered while performing their duties. The ASP portion of this course it to instruct the students on the techniques for use of the expandable baton. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Lt. Rios, Officer Cobos, Officer Crenshaw, Officer Hickman Class Location: Wiatt Building at the RELLIS Campus Maximum class size: 15 Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers. The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

March 8, 2023

Wednesday

08:00 - 00:00

Active Threats - Use of Force Training -- RELLIS

This class will be a 2 day class of ALERRT Level 1 training, involving the use of Simunitions weapons. The scenarios will test and train officers in the proper level and use of force in several real life scenarios. Scenarios will range from no use of force to deadly force situations. Class will be for 16 hours. Instructors: Lt. Rios, Sgt. Jackson, Ofc. Clemens, Ofc. Stultz, Ofc. Cobos, and Ofc. Niemeyer Maximum class size: 15 Location: TEEX Ag Bldg. at the RELLIS Campus Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers. The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

March 9, 2023

Thursday

00:00 - 17:00

Active Threats - Use of Force Training -- RELLISPlease See Above

March 10, 2023

Friday

08:00 - 17:00

EVOG Training -- RELLIS

The Emergency Vehicle Operators Course Update class is designed to refresh emergency vehicle operators in properly handling a vehicle during emergency driving situations. Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to operate motor vehicle under emergency conditions while minimizing exposure to injury, loss of property and liability. The morning portion of the training will consist of classroom discussion over UPD Policy Chapter 58, Vehicular Pursuits before any practical exercise is conducted. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Officer Jackson, Sgt. Goldwater, Det. Rogers, Det. Wester. Maximum Class size: 15 Class location: TEEX Driving Track at the RELLIS Campus. Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop

May 1, 2023

Monday

08:00 - 17:00

Firearms Training In-service -- RELLIS

Class will involve several exercises to familiarize and make Officers more proficient with the use of their sidearm, police shotgun, and patrol rifle. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Officer Niemeyer, Officer Jackson, Det. Rogers, Lt. Hartman, and Sgt. Jackson Attendance Limited to TAMU PD commissioned Officers. Class size 15 The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop. Class Location: TEEX Firing & Rifle Ranges at the RELLIS Campus

May 2, 2023

Tuesday

08:00 - 17:00

Defensive Tactics and ASP Training -- RELLIS

Officers will be given instruction on the use of Defense Tactics in order to respond and protect themselves, and/or others, to the most common forms of resistance encountered while performing their duties. The ASP portion of this course it to instruct the students on the techniques for use of the expandable baton Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Lt. Rios, Officer Cobos, Officer Crenshaw, Officer Hickman Class Location: Wiatt Building at the RELLIS Campus Maximum class size: 15 Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers. The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

May 3, 2023

Wednesday

08:00 - 17:00

EVOG Training -- RELLIS

The Emergency Vehicle Operators Course Update class is designed to refresh emergency vehicle operators in properly handling a vehicle during emergency driving situations. Upon successful completion of this course,

May 3, 2023 Continued

Wednesday

participants will be able to operate motor vehicle under emergency conditions while minimizing exposure to injury, loss of property and liability. The morning portion of the training will consist of classroom discussion over UPD Policy Chapter 58, Vehicular Pursuits before any practical exercise is conducted. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Officer Jackson, Sgt. Goldwater, Det. Rogers, Det. Wester. Maximum Class size: 15 Class location: TEEX Driving Track at the RELLIS Campus. Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop

May 4, 2023

Thursday

08:00 - 00:00

Active Threats - Use of Force Training -- RELLIS

This class will be a 2 day class of ALERRT Level 1 training, involving the use of Simunitions weapons. The scenarios will test and train officers in the proper level and use of force in several real life scenarios. Scenarios will range from no use of force to deadly force situations. Class will be for 16 hours. Instructors: Lt. Rios, Sgt. Jackson, Ofc. Clemens, Ofc. Stultz, Ofc. Cobos, and Ofc. Niemeyer Maximum class size: 15 Location: TEEX Ag Bldg. at the RELLIS Campus Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers. The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

May 5, 2023

Friday

00:00 - 17:00

Active Threats - Use of Force Training -- RELLIS

Please See Above

July 31, 2023

Monday

08:00 - 17:00

Firearms Training In-service -- RELLIS

This class will involve several exercises to familiarize and make Officers more proficient with the use of their sidearm, police shotgun, and patrol rifle. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Det. Wester, Officer Jackson, Det. Rogers, Lt. Hartman, and Sgt. Jackson Attendance Limited to TAMU PD commissioned Officers. Class size 15 The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop. Class Location: TEEX Firing and Rifle Ranges at the RELLIS Campus

August 1, 2023

Tuesday

08:00 - 17:00

Defensive Tactics and ASP Training -- RELLIS

Officers will be given instruction on the use of Defense Tactics in order to respond and protect themselves, and/or others, to the most common forms of resistance encountered while performing their duties. The ASP portion of this course is to instruct the students on the techniques for use of the expandable baton. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Lt. Rios, Officer Cobos, Officer Crenshaw, Officer Hickman Class Location: Wiatt Building at the RELLIS Campus Maximum class size: 15 Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers. The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.

August 1, 2023 Continued

Tuesday

August 2, 2023

Wednesday

08:00 - 17:00

EVOC Training -- RELLIS

The Emergency Vehicle Operators Course Update class is designed to refresh emergency vehicle operators in properly handling a vehicle during emergency driving situations. Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to operate motor vehicle under emergency conditions while minimizing exposure to injury, loss of property and liability. The morning portion of the training will consist of classroom discussion over UPD Policy Chapter 58, Vehicular Pursuits before any practical exercise is conducted. Class will be for 8 hours. Instructors: Sgt. Jackson, Det. Rogers, Det. Wester. Maximum Class size: 15 Class location: TEEX Driving Track at the RELLIS Campus. Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop

August 3, 2023

Thursday

08:00 - 17:00

Active Threats - Use of Force Training -- RELLIS

This class will be a 2 day class of ALERRT Level 1 training, involving the use of Simunitions weapons. The scenarios will test and train officers in the proper level and use of force in several real life scenarios. Scenarios will range from no use of force to deadly force situations. Class will be for 16 hours. Instructors: Lt. Rios, Sgt. Jackson, Ofc. Clemens, Ofc. Stultz, Ofc. Cobos, and Ofc. Niemeyer Maximum class size: 15 Location: TEEX Ag Bldg. at the RELLIS Campus Campus Attendance is limited to TAMU PD commissioned patrol officers. The Training Coordinator reserves the right to change dates, times, or add classes as situations change or new needs for training develop.